The Colorel People's National Labor Convention-Educational Monument Associati...

Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun The Sun (1837-1985); Dec 11, 1869; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The Baltimore Sun (1837-1986) pg. 4

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

The Colored People's National Labor Convention-Educational Monument Association, de-

Educifiant Johnment Association as The National Labor Convention (colored) did not have the Disaverolast might of bearing an address from Hon. Charles Summer, that gentle-ent disaveointed the andlence. C. H. and having disappointed the audience. C. H. Peters, a ward commissioner of the city, intro-duced a resolution of thanks to Mayor Bowen, similar to that tabled yesterday, and, in the ab-sence of the more prominent men of the conven-tion, it was adopted. Speeches were then made on the colored Inhore convention by a number of the delegates. This morning the convention re-assembled. A resolution offered by five. Selfar Martin was adopted, approving that porition of the President's message referring to the labor Guestion, and tendering thanks to President Grant for fairness and fearlossness of utteraice. A resolution offered by M. Barbadoes, of Cal-ifornia, was adopted, proclaiming the law mak-ing eight hours a day's work in all labor per-formed for the government is wise. Just/hymane. formed for the government is wise, just,hymane, and economical, and should be interpreted fairly and equitably, and expressing the hope that gov-erment contractors and its own officers will carry only its provisions fully.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the ex-ecutive committee of the permanent organiza-tion to appoint one or more delegates to the In-ternational labor Congress to be held in Paris next September. Prof. Vashon read a long report on education

Prof. Vasion reat a long report on eduction, detailing the progress made in that direction through the agency of the freedmen's bureau and other sources, by which colored children have been and are receiving the blessing of educational culture, the report concluding with a long series of resolutions that the work, after various organizations, should continue "unit! the entire South is dotted over with normal schools, complete in all needful educational fa-cijities." The report and resolutions were cilitics. The report and resolutions adopted.

adopted. A resolution was adopted praying Congress to anthorize the appointment by the President of a land commission for the purpose of purchasing eligible land for homesteads, the titles thereof to be held until by installments, without inter-est, it shall have been paid for when the money so employed, not to exceed $2,000,000 shall be re-founded to be patimate conserved.

funded to the national reasury. A number of resolutions were referred to various committeer.

Mr. Mackey, of South Carolina, offered a mearr. ARCRAY, OI SOUTH CATOINS, offered A me-morial, to be presented to Congress, relative to the condition of the colored laborers of the South, asking that measures be taken to lessen labor and increase wages, which could be done by furnishing them with homestends in the Southern States, of which there was 42,005 perces of public lands. The memorial was unanimously adouted.

of public lands. The memorial was unanimously adopted. A delegation of the convention, consisting of Mossrs. Rapier of Alabama, J. R. W. Leonard of New York, Kennedy of Marriand, and Dawson of Pennsylvania, called on Mayor Bowen at his office this morning. Mr. Rapier addressed Mr. Bowen, thanking him in the name of the conven-tion for the interest he had expressed in the labor movement. The mayor responded briefly, concluding by wishing the convention perfect speces concluding by wishing the convention perfect success. The colored people's association to establish an educational institution for colored youth as a monument to Abrabam Lincoln has turned over the one thousand dollars, or thereabouts, col-lected, to the Avery College. Pansylvania, and to Howard University, in trust to endow scholar-ships for advanced scholars from the District of Columbia. The most of this money was collected in 1865, at the great meeting which was held on the th of July of that year. After four years, and no more collections, the managers felt ob-liged to abandon the memorial undertaking and do the next best thing with the money. A resolution of thanks to the national execu-tive committee of colored mea was unanimously carried.

A resolution was adopted instructing the dele The convention was subject instructing the defe-gates, upon their return to their homes, to call State conventions of the laboring men. The convention will probably conclude its sea-cions to night, when a mass meeting will be held.